

Yesterday was a LONG day. It was a full 8 hours of work at school. Then I headed to Marg's. We packed up and head out to Tanglewood in 2 vehicles. We did a rehearsal dinner there. It was busy, a lot of work and long. I didn't get home until close to 1am. I showered and went to bed. I was so tired & wound up I didn't fall asleep until around 3am. Today I had my quiet time. I got my oil changed & car inspected. I did some reading while there and met a couple in visiting their daughter at Elon. I came home and watched a little TV and ate lunch. I took a nap this afternoon. Tonight Marg, Linda, and I catered a (thank the Lord) easy event. It was a 50 (something) high school reunion for Chapel Hill High. Now I'm going to shower and hit the sack.
