

I slept in today. I got up and had some quiet time. I did two loads of laundry and put them up. I ate lunch and got ready. I headed over to Marg's. We did a huge wedding reception out off of Hwy 54 close to Chapel Hill. We spent around 3 hours setting up all the tables, chairs and lots of decorations. It looked great. Shannon brought her camera so I hope to put up some photos soon. It was a nice location for the most part. The tomato bisque soup appetizer was great and so was the pork with pear & apple compote. The serving and clean up went well. They were still dancing and partying when I left.
