

Hitting the sack early tonight. It has been a busy week so far. Work was steady this morning and slower in the afternoon. We had prayer this morning and a was great. This afternoon we had a faculty meeting to do some planning and discussion on our school improvement plan. In home group we discussing the sermon from Sunday and talked about being in awe and fearing the Lord.

Share this:

- Share