

Well I slept in until about 8 today. I got up and had breakfast and quiet time. I got dressed and walked up the street to the Arts Alive float and helped John a little with it. Then we walked back over to Arts Alive. John asked me if I wanted to run sound for the float and I said sure. They even had a t-shirt for me. The Burlington Christmas Parade was a blast. It was a lot of fun to run sound and wave to the people along the way. I saw a lot of people I knew. Afterwards, we loaded up all the sound equipment and a lot of people in the truck and went back to the studio.

I relaxed this afternoon and did a few odds and ends. This evening was the 2nd New Directions Thanksgiving banquet. It went very well. It was good to see a lot of friends and familiar faces there, but I couldn't spend much time talking. Well I'm going to grab a shower and hit the sack!
