

Still fighting sinus junk but it has been better today. I worked with Marg today. We did a wedding party brunch today. It was a fun event and the food was great. We had mini ham & cheese biscuits, quiche, grits, and sweet breads. I did a little grocery shopping afterwards. I took it easy this afternoon. I talked with a friend via Skype. I downloaded my Christmas photos into iPhoto and did a few other odds and ends.

I relaxed this evening. Watched some of the football game. The I used an iTunes gift card to buy some classic cartoons. I watched a few.
