

Well it was a SLEEPY morning. It was hard to get going at school because all I wanted to do was nap to the sound of the rain. I ate my lunch and turned off the lights in my office and about went to sleep ☹️. The afternoon was better and a steady day. I headed out at 3. I got to Arts Alive and found out we were missing a few audio cords. So I headed over to the church and got them. We ran through a few scenes but did not get to run the whole play. PRAISE THE LORD the play went very well. The actors did well and the music worked. We had a great crowd (BUT we need YOU! our 2pm show has plenty of seats open). I just praise the Lord for his faithfulness in brining the production together.
