

It was a good morning at church. We had a sweet time of worship and in the Word. It was good to spend time with my family of faith. I relaxed this afternoon. I talked with Dad and took it easy. I had a very enjoyable evening watching the Superbowl. I'm glad it was not a blow out but I'm even happier the Pats lost.

Share this:

- Share