

It has been a busy two days. I slept in a little on Saturday. I had a nice quiet time. Then I put my headphones on my iPod and played a little Harry Connick Jr. and did some odds and ends around the house. I grabbed a nap after lunch. Last night, Marg, Karise and I did the cooking, prep, and plating while Jonathan, Aaron, Jordan, Luke, Shannon, Emily, Lydia served. The Antioch Valentines Banquet was beautifully decorated (thanks to Debra & David). It was a fun event. I came home and hit the sack.

Today I headed over to church for Men's breakfast. Mark spoke on men as Priests of the home. It was a great message. The service was so cool. The Colombia team gave their report and showed a video. It made me miss Colombia. I grabbed a quick nap this afternoon. Mom & Dad came in this evening we had fun talking and catching up. We went to Cracker Barrel for supper. It was so great spending time with them. We are planing a birthday party for my Grandmother on the 1st. It will also be for my great uncle Druid. He and his wife Sara will be in from Washington state!

Share this:

- Share