We had a fight this morning and it tied up the principals most of the day. I spent the afternoon printing out progress reports and getting them to teachers. This evening Micah Fox and I had supper at Chick-Fil-A. It was an encouraging time of sharing what God is doing in our lives, trading stories, and fellowshiping. I left encouraged and glad we got to catch up on life. This evening I relaxed and home and watch the History Channel for most of the evening.
