

It was a busy morning we had a delayed opening for staff development. The kids start later so it is a rush for everyone to do attendance due to a shortened schedule. We were all cold this morning because the AC was on. They finally got the heat working but it was a cold day. The afternoon was quiet. I came home and relaxed, had some soup and a grilled cheese. I watched American Idol & LOST this evening. LOST was a great scifi episode with good relationship stuff too. If you like LOST I can recommend 2 podcasts "The Transmission" (a husband & wife who live in Hawaii Ryan & Jen Ozawa) at <http://hawaiiup.com/lost> and "The Weekly Lost Podcast" (by Cliff & Stephanie Ravenscraft) at <http://gspn.tv/category/weeklylostpodcast/> .
