

I got up today and had quiet time. Then I headed over to Graham. I helped Marg load up and then we all went to Greensboro for the Brown & Brown wedding. We got everything decorated and the reception went well. I went from there to Lexington. Tonight we celebrated my Grandmother (Allred), Great Uncle Druid, and my cousin in-law Kristi's birthdays. I got in and grabbed a quick shower which helped because I was exhausted after the catering. We had a house full at Grandmother's will family. We had a ton of good food and a great time. But now it is time to head to bed. I'm tired!
