

It was a good day. We had prayer with morning with a group of staff members. We do it twice a month and it is always so encouraging. It is a joy to lift up the needs of the students, staff and the churches we are a part of. I worked the desk for a little today. Just before lunch we had our yearly tornado drill. It really hit home after the crazy weather we had yesterday. Homegroup was great. It was so good to have almost everyone there for the first time in a long time. We are discussing the book "Reforming Marriage." It is encouraging and challenging. But it is great to listen and learn from the families in the group.
