

Wow it has been challenging learning all this new stuff at work. Plus trying to get it all done. It is a real push when it is people's pay checks. I spent half my day on it today and still didn't finish. I came home mentally exhausted. I laid down for an hour. I got up had supper, packed for Easter break, and relaxed a little. I'm headed to bed early. I'm off to Mom & Dad's tomorrow after work. I'm looking forward to the rest and time with family.
