

It was a steady day. I spent all day catering for Marg. Shannon and I worked a grand opening for a credit union in Graham. We had breakfast, lunch and afternoon snacks. We kept things restocked and gave people drinks. It was not a hard job, but a long one. It was nice to come home and put my feet up and relax tonight.

Share this:

- Share