

Well I just praise the Lord for His faithfulness. It is always tough to go back to work after a break. It was especially so knowing the work of 2 job ahead of me. I had a good quiet time this morning and laid the day at His feet. I put on some good worship music on the way in to work. Work was busy and a little stressful, but the Lord blessed and I was able to get a good amount done. It is only by His grace, strength and wisdom. The afternoon was very productive and it helped to listen to the Nationals win their game today.

I did a lot of running this afternoon after work. I check my mail, dropped of rent, and went grocery shopping. It was nice to relax this evening. It has been a challenging time at work, but the Lord is teaching me so much. I prayed this morning and the Lord is so faithful. I prayed and have been praying that the Lord would used these challenged to draw me closer to Him and more dependent on Him. He is and I'm so blessed!
