

It was a productive day. After getting attendance done, I headed over to our district office for a lunch meeting. We had a Education Office Professionals meeting to discuss the big district meeting we are hosting in the fall. We also discussed several other things. After the meeting, I headed back to school and worked on some payroll and other jobs.

Share this:

- Share