

Well it was a good Sunday. The time of worship was sweet this morning. The Word was rich and deep. After church, John, Dave & Moses Cobb, Robert Prodoehl, Dale Johnson and I had lunch out at an Asian place. We went to K&W first but they were packed. It was a nice time of fellowship. I came home and turned on my electric blanket and took a nap. I watched "The Big Sleep" and some Food Network this afternoon. Mom & Dad and I caught up with them and all the family news. I got a call from a college friend to hang out some Wed. before I head to church. I relaxed this evening and watched 2/3 of "Ocean's Twelve" on TV. I'm headed to bed because my sinuses have been acting up today.

Share this:

- Share