

It was a full day an a great one. We had men's breakfast this morning where we finished up the "Men as Prophets, Priests, Protectors, and Providers" series. It has been a very good one. Worship was sweet today and the Word challenged us all. After church, John & Lorie and I had lunch at Panera and caught up. I came home and grabbed a quick nap. Then I headed over to the park for our church fellowship. It started raining so we were under the shelter for a while and then headed to church for supper. We had a great time of fellowship and fun around the tables. I came home and relaxed and am hitting the sack early. It has been a great weekend.
