

It was a busy day at work. Both principals were out so we were covering. We had our monthly fire drill today and it well. It was a very productive day for me on a lot of fronts. But I must say the best part of today was homegroup tonight. We had the whole Shoemaker family with us and Woody shared some of the things the Lord has been doing in there family over the last year. It has been such a joy to get to know in person the family we have been praying for all this time. They are a delight and I can't wait to get to spend more time with them. I (and everyone else at Antioch) wish they lived here. The Aiken's are also in town from KY for the wedding so it was great to hear an update from Amy Jo as well. We then had an ice cream party. It's nights like tonight that I wish could go on and I didn't have to work the next day. The fellowship, worship, and sharing were great!
