

Group at the airport

We awoke early Sunday morning and headed to the airport. We got checked in and relaxed a little before saying our goodbyes to Jorge & Karen. We went through security and waited for our flight. We had another great flight on Avianca to Miami. We went through customs and then got checked in to American Airlines. After Lunch, we went through security. We got on our plane but sat there for an hour or more. The pilot said that due to an issue with the plane and weather, we could not take that plane. The Lord provided another plane and got us through the weather. We got back to Raleigh later than expected but in good condition with all of our bags. We were greeted by friends and family and headed home. It was a great trip and all of us had major growth in the Lord. It was hard coming back but a blessing knowing we are committed to helping long-term. We are committed to give and go as the Lord provides.
