

Jay plastering the wall

Around the side of the island from the big fort are cliffs where the team likes to go to jump off. The group has to go in the morning so they are not interfering with fishermen. The group enjoyed diving off several points at the cliffs.

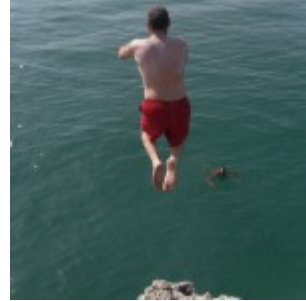

Walking to the cliffs

Anna Marie Diving

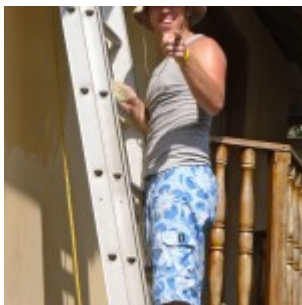

There goes Susannah

There he goes

In the afternoon most of the group worked in the mission compound. We cleaned the walls, stripped off loose paint, sanded, re-plastered and began painting.

Here's looking at you

Anna Marie working on the edging

Cindy edging the blue walls

Cleaning the wall

Thursday nights the mission holds a cell group meeting, inviting the community to worship and get Biblical teaching.

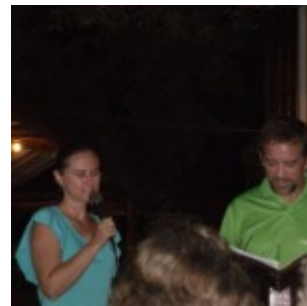

Karen and Vic Welcome the kids

Katherin leads worship

Sam & Jesse Play "Running"

Karen translates